Joyce Cole

Joyce,

I think your annual is good. You were a good editor, and I enjoyed working with you and your competent staff. You deserve to be very happy always, and I hope you are. It's been nice to have you in my classes.

Thanks for all the things you have done for me and the things you have helped me with. I've enjoyed the class this year, and it's people such as you that makes it so nice to be with your class. Come to see me sometime.

Love,
Doris Jones

Joyce,

I wish you best of luck, and I believe you are a very nice girl. You have been a good classmate. I have enjoyed seeing the pleasant smile that you keep on your face. May L. Tuttle

My dearest Joyce,

I hardly know where to begin to say just how much you have meant to me all through our wonderful school days. I don't know what I would have done without you to bear with me in times of sorrow and in times of happiness. Joyce you are the dearest, truest friend I have ever known. Now we've made it through school, haven't we? Here we are now leaving our wonderful days and leaving each other and all our wonderful times behind us. I'll never forget you, believe me, and I'll always remember you for your companionship and your friendly and courteous ways. Joyce may you have the best of everything in the future for you are a fine girl and really deserve it. Remember all those times we have had ^{personally} when I spent the night with you and when we, the Beta Club, went to the convention at Asheville. Boy! Didn't we have a times. Although I have about come to the end of this page and have to stop, I'll never forget you, but words just won't explain the way I feel about you down in my heart. Love always,
Best of luck always,
Annette Cotton

Joyce,

It's been a real nice spending the past 12 short years as a class mate of yours. Good luck & the best of wishes to a mighty nice & deserving girl.

Foreword

Let us, the 1955 Senior Class of Grantham School, reminisce over the past years and recall the happiness and enjoyment we have had together. Wonderful times are uppermost in our minds and surely we want to keep those memories surviving. The faces of our dear friends and classmates are pictured as tokens of friendliness and mutual companionships. There are vivid pictures of our helpful and guiding teachers.

All these wonderful and tender memories we have tried to gather in this annual. We hope that you will enjoy reliving the past now and in the future.

Joyce Cole
Editor

Annual Staff

Sherwood Williford, Circulation Manager; Roy Weaver, Business Manager; Bobbie Jean Flowers, Assistant Editor; Mrs. Doris Jones, Sponsor; Molly Price, Secretary; Joyce Cole, Editor.

We are proud to have been chosen as your annual staff and hope you enjoy this year book as much as we have enjoyed preparing it for you.

It has been fun to gather pictures and materials, and we thank each of you for your cooperation.

Perhaps we can picture more clearly some of the happenings, but who can forget some of the things such as the rainy day we had for making our group pictures.

We hope you can recall your high school days more vividly in years to come with this 1955 Grannawayne.

Dear Joyce,
It really has been you promising you, and it's only to Bobbie Jean to forget all the years. But flowers this is our last year & you will know how grateful we are. So Doris is wishing for you the best everything, always Roy

In Memoriam

In memory of Shirley Jean Britt, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Gurney Britt, who was drowned on June 8, 1952. We have never forgotten Shirley because of her friendliness and lovable ways. We have had to make our way without her though we will always think of her as a sweet memory through the years.

Dedication

DEDICATION

They are exuberant with their help and goodness. Patience and understanding are their highest traits and they are willing to help us solve any problem, large or small. It is because of people like them that we have our fine school today. We love them for all their wonderful work and guidance. For these reasons we fondly dedicate this 1955 Grannawayne to our beloved Senior teachers, Mrs. Doris Jones and Mrs. Doris Sanderson.

Joyce, you know I wish you luck and happiness and success without my saying it, because you you have just the qualities that will make you a pleasant success. It's been a pleasure teaching you these years I do appreciate your help in everything.

Class History

In September, 1951, our class of sixty-nine excited and inexperienced students entered high school. Our class of knowledge seekers was divided into two sections with Mr. Carey Barnes and Mr. Eugene Driver as our homeroom teachers. We finally became accustomed to being freshmen and to the high school routines. To add to the enjoyment of our first year in high school, we also had several skating parties. During this year Melba Cotton moved away, but Elizabeth Williams came into our class to occupy the vacant desk.

During the summer our hearts were filled with sorrow when we heard of the sudden death of one of our classmates, Shirley Britt, who was drowned.

After a very short, but enjoyable three months vacation most of us returned to school once more as sophomores. However, Mary Lou Weaver and Joyce Keen thought they liked married life better so they left us. This year our class was divided again, the boys in one room and the girls in another, which none of us liked at all. Mrs. Doris Sanderson and Mrs. Ruth Taylor were the homeroom teachers of the boys, and the girls had Miss McCaskill. By this time we were quite familiar with all the ups and downs of high school life. We ended this exciting year with several of us girls dressing as clowns and serving at the Junior-Senior Banquet. During the latter part of this year four more girls, Shelby Weeks, Merlene Brock, Margie Bryan and Elva Williford got married. Before we knew it vacation time was here again.

After another vacation, we joined our friends again as proud Juniors. We really were getting places because we had come all the way up to the Junior Class and could look back and see the awkward and inexperienced Freshmen and Sophomores striving for the same goals that we, as Juniors, had already gained. This year, we had as our instructors, Miss Elizabeth Lewis and Mrs. Doris Sanderson, with whom everyone enjoyed working. The students who left us were John Hayes, Garland Barnes, and Malcolm Barnes. We had several delightful class parties and, also, gave a junior play entitled "Hessie of the Hills." The biggest event of this year was our Junior-Senior Banquet. Our speaker for this occasion was Mr. O. B. Harrell and our guest entertainer was Sistie Smith, who gave a pantomime. Everyone really enjoyed it and had a wonderful time.

Then vacation time had come and gone, forty-five journeyed back to school once more, we were really stepping high because now at last we were sophisticated seniors, with our goals almost reached and our high school days limited. Our instructors this year have been Mrs. Doris Jones and Mrs. Doris Sanderson. Mrs. Sanderson has had to put up with us all the way from our Sophomore year! This year we gained another student, Hettie Lou Sutton, a former schoolmate of ours. We also had another classmate, Joyce Best, to get married, but she came back to join us, as Joyce Sutton. This year has been a very busy one for us with the preparation of our annual and the many other things which were essential for graduating. We also received our class rings, and, for a while none of us could get our minds on our studies for flashing them around in the air or shining them. We also looked forward to the parties and the Junior-Senior Banquet.

As the end of the year is approaching we can look back, and remember just how much fun we really have had together during our precious high school years. With our dear memories, we say our good-bys to the under-classmen and our teachers who have helped us so much and worried with us during the past four years. We want to say THANKS for everything and we will always proudly remember Grantham High School and all for which it stands.
